2015.02.23.08 Discussion/Action for Resolution number 05-2015 requesting the Texas Legislature to authorize a local option election for the creation of a Water Oriented Recreation District relative to the portion of the San Marcos River separating Guadalupe and Caldwell Counties. Cost: None. Speaker: Judge Schawe. Backup 1.

Resolution No. 05-2015

Whereas, it is recognized that hundreds of thousands of visitors annually visit the San Marcos River in Caldwell County; and

Whereas, it is recognized that the large number of seasonal tourists stress existing public facilities including public health, safety, sanitation, and transportation services and facilities resulting in unsafe and unhealthy conditions along the river and adjacent roadways; and

Whereas, there is no recreation management entity responsible for the multiple jurisdiction area of said surface waters; and

Whereas, management of the associated recreational use problems could be enhanced through the creation of a local managing entity if desired by local citizens;

2. non-mandated drug courts operating in counties with a population of less than 200,000.

Program Income

Applicant agrees to comply with all federal and state rules and regulations for program income and agrees to report all program income that is generated as a result of the project's activities. Applicant agrees to report program income to CJD through a formal grant adjustment and to secure CJD approval prior to use of the program income. Applicant agrees to use program income for allowable costs and agrees to expend program income immediately after CJD's approval of a grant adjustment and prior to requesting reimbursement of CJD funds.

Deduction Method - Program income shall be deducted from total allowable costs to determine the net allowable costs. Program income shall be used for current costs unless CJD authorizes otherwise. Program income shall be used to reduce the CJD award and grantee match rather than to increase the funds committed to the project. Exceptions to the deduction method must be approved by the CJD Executive Director.

Note: Program income must be spent on project expenses before expending OOG grant funds. Program income is subject to the same statutes, rules, regulations, and guidelines applicable to the use of the OOG-funded portion of the grant.

Asset Seizures and Forfeitures - Program income from asset seizures and forfeitures is considered earned when the property has been adjudicated to the benefit of the plaintiff (e.g., law enforcement entity).

Entities receiving funds from CJD must be located in a county that has an average of 90% or above on both adult and juvenile dispositions entered into the computerized criminal history database maintained by the Texas Department of Public (DPS) Safety as directed in the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Chapter 60. The disposition completeness percentage is defined as the percentage of arrest charges a county reports to DPS for which a disposition has been subsequently reported and entered into the computerized criminal history system.

Describe Below:

The Caldwell County Challenge Court meets Essential Characteristic #1 by including all members of the criminal justice community including citizen input. The Court has written policies and procedures both for the team members and the participants. The Court encourages participant compliance with program requirements by both rewards and sanctions for their behavior. Treatment professionals regularly attend court staffings and share timely information concerning participant treatment progress. The Judge is very active in the administration and court meetings. The Challenge Court Team attended the state conference training in 2014. Last, team member decision making and conflict resolution are effectively mediated in the court staffings. In meeting Essential Characteristic #2, the Challenge Court does use the services of defense counsel and an Assistant Criminal District Attorney. The District Attorney provides all legal screening of potential participants, which includes reviewing the case, participant eligibility requirements and ensuring due process and public safety concerns are met. The defense counsel also ensures that the participants due process rights are preserved, gives advice on legal matters and provides a "check and balance" system to maintain transparency for the program. Essential Characteristic #3 is attempted by keeping open communication with the District Judge presiding over the Challenge Court and the 6 rotating magistrate judges. Caldwell County does not employ a full time magistrate, instead it rotates four Justices of the Peace Court Judges, one Municipal Court Judge, and one County Court at Law Judge. The Challenge Court Judge maintains close working relationships with a majority of the magistrate judges and can easily communicate in regards to possible Challenge Court participants. The District Attorney also reviews the indictment list on a monthly basis to identify potential Challenge Court participants, and makes recommendations to the Challenge Court team. Caldwell Counties elected District Attorney has changed during this reporting period. A new District Attorney has won the elected seat, and has indicated that he will be working with the Court, and may have ideas to ensure the Court operates efficiently. Essential Characteristic #4 is accomplished through the use of a variety of treatment modules. This would include the use of the Day Treatment Program (County Implemented), numerous AA/NA classes throughout the community, access to numerous classes such as DWI Education/Intervention, Drug Education/Intervention, Women's Support Group, Nature of Marijuana, Intensive Out-patient Program, Male/Female Offender Program, etc. The Challenge Court also coordinates with psychological services that employ PH.D level counselors, and alcohol and drug counseling with Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselors. Additionally, participants are eligible for various in-patient rehabilitative services which include but are not limited to: Volunteers of America, Austin Recovery Center, Court Residential Treatment Centers, Central Texas Treatment Center, Community Corrections Facilities, and the Substance Abuse Felony Punishment Facility. Essential Characteristic #5 is accomplished through the frequent and random drug testing of participants. Upon entering the program participants are randomly drug tested one to three times a week, with the frequency of testing diminishing over time and depending on compliance. At a minimum even in the later part of the program, defendants are tested at least weekly. Drug testing is completely random and can occur at any time or place. The Challenge Court employs an officer that has the ability to drug test the participant at the probation office, place of employment, or residence. Drug testing is accomplished through regular urine screening tools with confirmation from a laboratory if needed. Additionally, portable breath testing for alcohol is conducted along with SCRAM units (ankle and home models), Interlocks and GPS Tracking systems to monitor the defendant's movement, and enforce curfew if needed. Hair follicle is also utilized facilitated through a local medical clinic which the Court with a broader view of view of any illegal substances which may have been used. Essential Characteristic #6 is accomplished by responding to participant behavior in the program as a team. If a violation occurs, a decision on how to address, and the appropriate response is made as a team, with input from all team members. Rewards are given to those participants that exceed the minimum standards set by the court. These rewards may include less court time, positive encouragement from the Judge, or even gift cards. Conversely sanctions are ordered to participants that do not meet the standards of the program. These sanctions could include the defendant writing a corrective action plan and speaking before the court, serving time in the county jail, all the way to long term residential treatment. If after all avenues of behavior modification fail, then the Challenge Court reserves the right to terminate the participant from the program. Essential Characteristic #7 is accomplished through Judicial interaction from the Judge while in Court, or one on one meetings in his chambers. The Judge takes a very active role in the Challenge Court and attends all Court settings, meetings, and staffings. He is on a first name basis with all participants in the program, and spends considerable time with each client learning problems, needs, and accomplishments individually. The Judge has considerable motivational skills, and consistently offers praise to clients who have achieved a level of success. In turn the Court also offers help or assistance to participants that are having a difficult time in meeting Challenge Court expectations. The Judge takes pride in the success of the participants, and is always considerate about the effectiveness of the program. This shows in his work ethic and level of commitment to the program. Analysis Essential Characteristic #8 is achieved through gathering of statistical data by the court coordinator. All descriptive statistical information is gathered through reviewing the files and importing the data into excel. The Challenge Court probation officer also records detailed information into Ableterm software. Any given client can be accessed in the computer, and the probation officer records all office visits, home visits, phone or mail correspondence, and court dates. Analysis of success can be achieved through several types of reports run through the Ableterm system, or excel spreadsheet. Data and compliance are accessible, and can be analyzed comparatively with other treatment programs. For Essential Characteristic #9 the Caldwell County Challenge Court has the benefit of an experienced Drug Court administrator. Caldwell County is Judicially connected to Comal, and Hays counties in a Judicial District. The Challenge Court administrator for the Comal County Challenge Court is now also acting as lead administrator for the Caldwell County Challenge Court. He is considered an expert in the field of specialized courts, and has a vast amount of knowledge and experience in the field of Drug Courts, having attended and spoken at conferences all over the nation. He has been a leader and teacher for the Caldwell County Challenge Court team. Also as mentioned earlier the Drug Court team attends the state conference on a yearly basis to maintain up to date educational information in regards to best treatment practices. Essential Characteristic #10 is achieved by continuously striving to maintain relationships with public agencies and community organizations, and seek to build new relationships as the program progresses.

General Approaches

- Pre-adjudication - The defendant is diverted to the treatment program in lieu of prosecution before charges are filed or before final case.
- Post-adjudication - The drug offender begins the drug court program after entering a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or having been found guilty, often as a condition of probation.
- Reentry - Offenders completing sentences of incarceration or lengthy terms of residential treatment are ordered into the treatment program to facilitate their transition and reintegration into society.
- Civil - Participants enter the drug court program in relation to suits affecting the parent-child relationship, including child welfare / CPS cases, child support cases, or other civil matters.

Problem Statement:

Please provide a detailed account in the Problem Statement section of the existing issues your project will target.

Enter your problem statement:

The Comal County Challenge Court (Felony Drug Court) is currently operating in its third year. In effectively supervising and managing the participants in the program, this project will address four areas of the program that are at the core of providing a comprehensive drug court treatment model. The four areas of concern are: (1) funding of an adult probation officer; (2) Drug and Alcohol monitoring; (3) Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor drug and alcohol assessment; and (4) Interdisciplinary team member training. The four aforementioned areas are consistent with the best practices model developed by the NADCP publication "Defining Drug Courts: The Key Components" and the Texas Health and Safety Code §469 Essential Characteristics. The first area of concern targeted by this project is the funding of an adult probation officer. This position is currently funded by Governor's Office grant #2667602. The adult probation officer currently dedicates all his time to the Challenge Court. Caldwell County does not have funds available to hire a full time probation officer dedicated to the Challenge Court unless granted assistance by the state. This officer manages all aspects of the participant's life which includes after hours home and work visits. Having a CSO direct his full attention to the Challenge Court participant base allows for intensive supervision, easy availability to address needs of caseload, and quick response to violations. Most of the participants in the Caldwell County Drug Court are high risk, or high needs clients. This is why it is important to have an officer that is readily available to closely monitor the population and ensure correct rehabilitative steps are being followed. The second targeted area by this project is drug and alcohol testing. The probation officer test every client in the program one to three times a week. Currently the drug testing kits, and laboratory expenses are being paid by the Caldwell County Community Supervision and Corrections Department. The funds for drug/alcohol testing are extremely limited, therefore the requested funding is desperately needed. In addition the Challenge Court would like to provide a breathalyzer and hair follicle testing, which are available at this time, but only if the client can afford to cover the cost. With the use of SCRAM and Ignition Interlocks, these funds will greatly enhance monitoring the participant's drug and alcohol usage. We currently employ the use of standard drug testing kits but wish to include the alcohol swab kit in order to increase detection of alcohol usage. The third area targeted by this project will be the Licensed Chemical dependency Counselor drug and alcohol assessment. This assessment provides information concerning the participant's substance abuse addiction. With this assessment we can accurately determine the next step in treating the addiction. Thus, this assessment is the first rung in the treatment model and thus is crucial to understanding the participant's addiction. The fourth targeted concern is interdisciplinary education for team members. The Challenge Court is a new program in Caldwell County and training is a priority. The requested funding would enhance the team member's opportunities to attend trainings and conferences. As mentioned previously the team did attend the Texas Association of Drug Courts conference 2014. The current state of the Caldwell county budget does not allow further training expenses without assistance from the governor's office. It should be noted that although the Caldwell County Drug Court is very fortunate to have received funding through the governor's office in Grant #2664601 and # 2664602, neither of these grants allowed for assistance with drug testing, assessment, or training. In both previous grant periods the initial request for funding was lowered to an amount that would not allow for these areas of concern. Therefore Caldwell County is respectively requesting funds for these target areas in #2664603. The aforementioned areas are indeed in compliance with the Texas Health and Safety Code § 469.001 Essential Characteristics #1, 4, 5 and 9.

Supporting Data:

Provide as much supporting data, to include baseline statistics and the sources of your data, which are pertinent to where the grant project is located and/or targeted. Do not use statewide data for a local problem or national data for a statewide problem.

Enter your supporting data:

The 2014 Caldwell County Challenge Court's basic demographic data is as follows: Number of participants: 15 (two more than last funding period) Male: 6 Female: 9 Age Range: 20 to 48 with the average of participant being 29 Average number of days in the program until first positive drug test: Approximately 90 days. Offenses: POCs - 12; POM - 1; DWI - 1; Theft - 1 Race/Ethnicity of participant base: white - 9 (60%); black - 3 (20%); Hispanic - 3 (20%) According to the Office of Court Administration in the state of Texas approximately thirty-one percent of the pending cases for fiscal year 2012 were related to drug and/or alcohol offenses, compared to thirty-five percent in calendar year 2011. We can conclude from this basis that the state of Texas did enjoy a four percent reduction in drug/alcohol related offenses. By utilizing statistics accumulated by the Texas Office of Court Administration it is possible to run a report for the entire state of Texas breaking down felony cases for fiscal year 2013. The most current data indicates that out of 496,137 felony cases, 157,681 were drug/alcohol related in 2013. This would reveal that state wide drug/alcohol related cases rose (+1%) making 32% of all cases in Texas drug/alcohol related. By utilizing statistics accumulated by the Texas Office of Court Administration it is possible to run a report based solely on Caldwell County data. Comparatively Caldwell County statistically parallels the state of Texas in fiscal year 2013, reporting that out of 212 total felony cases, 63 of those cases were drug and alcohol related. This accounts for a thirty percent rate of drug/alcohol related offenses within the county. Broken down specifically within Caldwell County twenty-one percent of all felony cases are drug related, and nine percent are alcohol related. Comparing this data to last year's reported data in 2012 shows that the actual number of felony case filings for drug/alcohol related offenses increased in Caldwell County from forty-seven indicted felony cases in 2012 to sixty-three indicted felony cases in 2013 to ninety-two indicted felony cases in 2014. Although 2014 data is not yet available on the Texas Courts website, the most accurate and current picture of Caldwell County case filings can be obtained by going through the District Attorneys Indictment list on a monthly basis of cases presented to the grand jury. The Caldwell County District Attorney present the following to the grand Jury in 2014: Jan - 10 cases, 3 drug/alcohol related; Feb - 23 cases, 7 drug/alcohol related; March - 39 cases, 7 drug/alcohol related; April - 7 cases, 0 drug/alcohol related; May - 15 cases, 6 drug/alcohol related; June - 25 cases, 9 drug/alcohol related; July - 26 cases, 12 drug/alcohol related; Aug - 26 cases, 7 drug/alcohol related; Sept - 31 cases, 8 drug/alcohol related; Oct - 21 cases, 8 drug/alcohol related; Nov - 33 cases, 9 drug/alcohol related; Dec 29 cases, 16 drug/alcohol related. This data presented shows that out of a total amount of 285 Felony case filings in 2014 that 92 of those filing were for a Drug/Alcohol related offense. This accounts for thirty-two percent of all felony case filing in Caldwell County, which is similar to the state average. More importantly yet is the total number of 92 drug/alcohol related offenses is double the amount provided in 2012. This data would indicate that drug/alcohol abuse in Caldwell County has been on a sharp incline over the last 3 years. Drug and alcohol abuse in Caldwell County remains a prevalent concern with more felony case filings than ever in 2014. This does not include offenses motivated by substance abuse. The Challenge Court will take into consideration other non-violent offenses that are substance abuse motivated. Currently, Challenge Court guidelines only contemplate third degree and state jail felony level drug and alcohol offenses. Additionally, the Challenge Court does not accept manufacturing or delivery of drugs offenses. There does not appear to be any formal studies on drug prevalence in Caldwell County, but data from the Community Supervision and Corrections department is available through the 2014 executive summary and annual report. In this report the probation department recorded that marijuana and methamphetamines were the most used substance for defendants who failed drug test while on supervision. Broken down into categories for violations of supervision the substances used by probated defendants were as follows: Amphetamines 28%; THC 27%; Benzodiazepine 19%; Cocaine 11%; Alcohol 8%; Opiates 7%. The data recorded in 2014 is in contrast to 2013 data submitted for last year's grant period in which marijuana was the most used illicit substance with 51% percent of all positive drug test showing THC. The second most abuse substance was amphetamines accounting for 16% of all positive drug test, followed by cocaine and benzodiazepines with 4%. Comparing the data from the last two annual reports would indicate a sharp rise in use of methamphetamine. All thirteen participants from last year's grant were felony drug cases. This year's participant base is more diverse with a DWI case, and a theft case added to the Court. This is the first time in the Court's existence that a DWI offender has been deemed appropriate for Drug Court intervention. In 2014 the Community Supervision Officer assigned to the Drug Court recorded that forty-four percent of the total violations were drug/alcohol related and fifty-six percent were administrative. This revocation data comparatively parallels that of the Caldwell County Community Supervision Department in which thirty-six percent of violations are due to drug/alcohol use. Of the seven positive drug screens, seventy-one percent tested positive for THC (marijuana), and twenty-nine percent submitted specimens for cocaine. The Challenge Court has been able to effectively address violations, and non compliance through sanctions and treatment options. Several forms of treatment have been initiated due to drug/alcohol violations with participants being required to submit to the Caldwell County Day Treatment Program, the Caldwell County Intensive Out-Patient Program, the Gonzales Intermediate Sanctions Facility and the Central Texas Treatment Facility. Sanctions have also been added for administrative violations requiring participants to submit to jail time, additional community service, additional reporting, and corrective action plans. In contrast the Caldwell County Challenge Court has also rewarded its participants for positive behavior by reducing reporting requirements, subtracting community service restitution, and positive re-enforcement from the Judge praising good behavior in front of the peer group. Of current participants in the program, excluding those who are currently in treatment seventy-one percent of participants have been able to gain employment with assistance from the Challenge Court team, compared to sixty-four percent of defendants on regular Caldwell County Adult Probation. The current revocation rate of the Caldwell County Drug Court stands at zero having no participant's official being negatively discharged from the program. At the time of last year's grant proposal it was cited that two participants had active warrants for arrest due to non-compliance with Drug Court terms, with both clients having submitted positive drug screens then absconding from the program. These warrants were both served, and Drug Court action was taken, therefore the revocation rate remains at zero. Although the participants did abscond, once they were apprehended the team decided to place them in long term residential treatment. Both participants are currently in residential treatment facilities. The Caldwell County Community Supervision and Corrections Department reported a revocation rate of nineteen percent in 2013, and fifteen percent in 2014. Comparatively speaking the Challenge Court has been able to produced higher success rates statistically than offenders placed on regular probation in Caldwell County. The Challenge Court is able to supervise the defendant population closer, due to the smaller case load size of the probation officer, and the open communication between the Judge, and the participant. In 2014, Challenge Court participants were asked to submit to 541 drug test, which is more than twice the amount of 2013 when only 247 drug test were given. Broken down by phases the following number of drug test were given to participants: Phase 1 - 218 urine specimens provided; Phase 2 - 186 urine specimens provided; Phase 3 - 85 urine specimens provided; Phase 4 - 43 urine specimens provided; Phase 5 - 9 urine specimens provided. The Drug Court made a great effort in 2014 to increase the level of drug testing, setting an example for the entire participant base that abstinence will be monitored very closely. Caldwell County Community Supervision Department reveals the top primary needs of defendants placed on community supervision, including those placed in the challenge court program. In 2013 the probation department has found through assessment that forty-one percent of offenders placed on community supervision have a primary concern of drugs and alcohol. Sixty-one percent of the total offender population placed on community supervision in Caldwell County is based on drug/alcohol related offenses, with thirty-six percent being drug related, and twenty-five percent being alcohol related. This means that more than half of all offenses placed on supervision are drug/alcohol related. The Challenge Court is able to address drug/alcohol violations quickly due to the smaller caseload size, and availability of the Court to address concern. The challenge court officer was able to conduct ninety - five home/field visits to participant's residences, and workplaces. Along with increased drug tested, the Drug Court CSO also increased his level of random/surprise home visits. It should be noted that the CSO increased his level of these random visits by two hundred percent. These visits are completely random, and the participant is not notified that the officer is coming. If provided with funding from the governor's office, the probation officer would be able to increase the frequency of field observation, due to improved availability. 960 hours of community service restitution has been completed by Drug Court participants. These hours completed have been a great benefit for several community organizations in which the community supervision department retains agreements which allows the participant to serve restitution to the community through volunteering time giving back Caldwell County. The Caldwell County Drug Court presently has participants in all five phases of the program. The Caldwell County Drug Court graduated its first three participants from the program in 2014. All three participants satisfactorily completed all phases of the program, completed drug/alcohol treatment programs with aftercare, and all three participants were full time employed at the time of graduation. One of the participants with the assistance of counseling was able to promote up the ranks in his employment during this course of his rehabilitative process. He had just achieved the title of general manager of his workplace before he graduated from the Drug Court. A graduation ceremony was provided for all three participants, with accolades from the Judge and team in front of the entire participant base.

Community Plan:

For projects that have a local or regional impact target area, provide information regarding the community plan need(s) that your project will address.

Enter your community planning needs:

The Caldwell County Community Justice Plan 2012-2014, submitted to the Community Justice Counsel and Capital Area Council of Governments, states in part "There is still a lack of substance abuse and intervention programs available to adults, that have not been placed on community supervision in Caldwell County, that are approved by the Texas Department of State Health Services 1. No intensive treatment, inpatient treatment services, or detoxification services are available in Caldwell County for substance abusers. 2. There are no substance abuse outpatient treatment providers for adults in Caldwell County based on TCADA. 3. There are resources available on the state level to adults seeking intervention and treatment services for substance abuse, if they have transportation to other counties and cities. Budgetary issues at the state legislative level may mean fewer funds for existing providers of Substance Abuse Intervention Services or dual diagnosis services in Caldwell County. Substance abuse is a growing problem in Caldwell County. Although the state of Texas has enjoyed a decrease in drug/alcohol arrest, regrettably Caldwell County has reported opposite numbers in relation to drug/alcohol statistics. The number of drug/alcohol related case filings in Caldwell County continue to increase ever year. Because the Challenge Court target population is Felony drug/alcohol offenders, these statistics are closely monitored. As noted in the supporting data section of this grant proposal the level of Felony case filings in Caldwell County has increased from 47 drug/alcohol arrest in 2012 to 63 drug/alcohol arrest in 2013. This accounts for a thirty percent rate of drug/alcohol related offenses within the county. Broken down specifically within Caldwell County twenty-one percent of all felony cases are drug related, and nine percent are alcohol related. The current population in Caldwell County is listed at 38,126 according to the United States Census Bureau. Reviewing detailed statistics provided by the 2010 US census, Caldwell County has remained almost completely stagnant in population growth since 2000, and is considered one of the slowest growing counties in Texas. The current unemployment rate is at nine percent, which is more than two percent higher than the Texas average. 41.7 percent of the entire county consider themselves either not in the workforce or retired. The Texas Association of Counties asserts that twenty percent of Caldwell County's population lives below the poverty line. Additionally according to the US 2010 census, all forms of industry, manufacturing, and sources of employment have reduced by 2.2 percent in the last ten years. This census data is presented only to elaborate the counties current fiscal condition. While many of Caldwell's contiguous counties have enjoyed growth, and fiscal gains, Caldwell not only remains at a stalemate, its financial condition has deteriorated. Caldwell County has very limited tax revenue to assist in the funding of the Challenge Court at this time, therefore state assistance is desperately needed. Although persons placed on Adult Probation have the availability of resources within the Probation Department, the percentage of persons identified as entering State Funded Treatment Programs involved in the Criminal Justice System averages only 21% for the range of primary drugs identified by TCADA. Presently, treatment services are provided through referral to surrounding areas. Intervention services are available, and some providers provide mental health services, which include dual diagnosis services for those who suffer from mental illness and substance abuse issues. However, there is no existing program specifically providing substance abuse treatment services that is approved by TCADA for adults who are not involved in the criminal justice system. Caldwell County has limited existing resources for Adult Substance Abuse. There are two active Alcoholic Anonymous groups and one Narcotic Anonymous group holding meetings on a regular basis for those in recovery, Services providing screening and referral are presently provided by the District Resource Center and Blue Bonnet Mental Health and Disability Disorder (Blue Bonnet MH/DD) through their Outreach Screening and Assessment Referral Program. However, no licensed providers are available in Caldwell County according to the DSHS. A local provider for substance abuse treatment for those not involved with the Criminal Justice System is needed.

Goal Statement:

Provide a brief description of the overall goals and objectives for this project.

Enter a description for the overall goals and objectives:

The goal of the Caldwell County Challenge Court is to provide the opportunity and the tools necessary for eligible offenders to participate in a judicially supervised treatment program in the effort to eradicate their dependence of substance abuse. In conjunction with this goal, the Challenge Court seeks to ensure the safety of Caldwell County by reducing the effects of substance abuse and its associated negative behavior. Thus, as stated in the Challenge Court application for participation, the mission of the Challenge Court: "strives to improve the quality of life of all citizens of Caldwell County-specifically including those impacted by and victimized by substance abuse. Public safety for all will be increased by reducing the amount and frequency of substance abuse-related crime. Challenge Court participants will be encouraged to lead clean, sober and productive lives through goal-driven personal responsibility, treatment and supervision".

The Caldwell County Drug Court started receiving participants in June 2012, and currently has fifteen participants after being in operation for approximately 30 months. When drafting grant proposal #2667601 the target level of participant goal was set at thirteen new clients for 2013, and when drafting grant proposal #2667602 the participant level was set at 18. The Drug Court was able to achieve this goal with exactly 18 total participants in 2014. The only goal set in proposal #2667602 that was not achieved was that the Court hoped to enroll 11 new participants, but only enrolled 9 - falling two short of our goal. The process for receiving new applications involves communication from the defense attorney, the district attorney, and the district judge. The level of communication has been open, and successful since the inception of the program, making the application process a positive experience. At the time of this grant request there are several pending applications being reviewed by the Drug Court team that will bring the Court closer to its original intake goal. Progress of total participants enrolled and interest in the program has been successful since our last grant proposal. Caldwell County swore in a new elected District Attorney in January 2015, he is educated on the Drug Court model of treatment, and in favor of using the program to its full extent. The presiding judge has good working relationships with the new incoming District Attorney, and the Drug Court will remain a high priority for Caldwell County despite a change in public office. The team members of the Caldwell County Drug Court are committed to operating a successful program, and will put forth every effort to increase the participant level and help provide a service to the citizens of Caldwell County.

The Caldwell County Challenge Court (Felony Drug Court) is currently in its third year of operation, having been in session for approximately 30 months. It has fifteen active participants, with two other defendants involved in the screening process at the time this grant request was submitted. In the course of effectively treating substance abuse participants there are many components of the treatment model that are employed to achieve participant sobriety. The Challenge Court provides participants with services that are conducive to managing their substance abuse, for example judicial supervision, intensive probation supervision and the administration of a Goal Achievement Plan. This project will target the following areas that the Challenge Court lacks funding: first, the funding of a probation officer; second, LCDC assessments; third, drug and alcohol monitoring; and fourth, Challenge Court team member training. First, the funding of a community supervision officer greatly improves the responsiveness and attention to participant supervision and to the Challenge Court itself. The Community Supervision Officer assigned to the Challenge Court is now working for the Court full time and all his attention and dedication are given to Court. It is only with the financial assistance provided by the governor's office that Caldwell County is able to dedicate a full time officer to this position. At the inception of the Drug Court, the officer was sharing his time between the Drug Court and operating a pre-trial bond caseload. Since funding was provided and he is able to serve as the full time Drug Court CSO, response time for participant assistance has vastly improved. Being able to dedicate his full attention to the Drug Court has enhanced the Court's ability to assess new participants, to market the Court's mission statement, to address the judges concerns, to record participant progress or lack of progress, to provide intensive supervision to the participant base, and record data/ statistical progress of the Court's achievements. To manage and supervise a drug court caseload the probation officer should address only the concerns and problems of a drug court caseload, in which Caldwell County hopes to obtain eighteen - twenty participants by the end of our third year of operation. The probation officer component of the Challenge Court adheres to the NADCP's Ten Key Component #1 and to the Texas Health and Safety Code §469.001 Essential Characteristic #1: The integration of alcohol and other drug treatment services in the processing of cases in the judicial system. Second, LCDC/CSO assessments are extremely vital to participant success in conquering their substance abuse problems. In order to prescribe the correct treatment plan proper assessment of the participant is extremely vital. During the first year of operation the Challenge Court's primary source of assessment was conducted through the Substance Abuse Screening Assessment (SASSI). After financial resources were rewarded from the Governor's Office the Caldwell County CSO with assistance from the Caldwell County LCDC has been able to conduct full Substance Abuse Evaluations (SAE) on all incoming participants. This form of assessment is a proven thorough technique in the appraisal of the severity of the drug/alcohol dependence. With the assistance of the Governor's Office Caldwell County Drug Court has been able to get an enhanced vantage point of the participants risk and needs in treatment. The Drug Court team has discussed future techniques of assessment for the upcoming year. Participants could potentially be sent to an individual assessment with a psychologist, in order to determine if the "substance abuse problem fuels the psychological problem or vice versa" increased counseling along with the initial evaluation is critical in providing appropriate treatment services to our participants. Increased funding in the assessment phase would allow close communication between the team, and professional counselors/LCDC. The employment of LCDC assessments conform to Texas Health and Safety Code §469.001 Essential Characteristic #4: Access to a continuum of alcohol, drug, and other related treatment and rehabilitative services. Third, applying Texas Health and Safety Code §469.001 Essential Characteristic #5: Monitoring of abstinence through weekly alcohol and other drug testing, the Challenge Court conducts frequent and random drug and alcohol testing of Challenge Court participants. Drug testing kits and portable breathalyzer testing is the applied method of abstinence monitoring at this time. Although funding for Drug Testing kits was requested in proposal #2667602, these funds had to later be cut out of the budget due to a diminished amount provided from the governor's office. As cited in the data portion of this grant request the Drug Court more than double the amount of drug test given to the participant base to achieve an all time high of 541 drug test provided. These test kits were paid for by the adult supervision general fund, and because the Drug Court test more frequently than the Community Supervision Department it drains the probations departments resources. The budget of the Caldwell County Community Supervision and Corrections Department is very limited, with the current resources of the probation department it is very difficult to supply the Challenge Court with the number of drug/alcohol testing kits needed without grant assistance. Continued funding of these drug and alcohol monitoring devices is critical to the compliance of Essential Characteristic #5. In addition to funding the aforementioned testing measures, the Challenge Court hopes to employ the use of the SCRAM to participants that have alcohol issues, but because of financial restraints this is not possible without additional funding. The Challenge Court does accept DWI offenders, and was able to find its first Felony DWI offender that was deemed eligible to participate in 2014. The DWI offender does have the availability of the Ignition Interlock device and the CSO does receive monthly updates from this source of monitoring. The Challenge Court lacks the funding to cover the costs associated with these alcohol monitoring tools if not provided funds through this grant proposal. With funding through this project, participants can be successfully monitored through multiple alcohol and drug detecting tools. Fourth, in complying with Texas Health and Safety Code §469.001 Essential Characteristic #9: Continuing interdisciplinary education to promote effective program planning, implementation, and operations, the Challenge Court seeks funding for team member training. As cited earlier in this grant request, the Challenge Court team attended the Texas Association of Drug Court Professionals Conference in 2014 located in Fort Worth, TX. This was a great opportunity to gain formal training, and guidance in regards to the operation of a drug court. As stated many times in this request, Caldwell County has very limited funding for further training that will prevent the team from securing the experience and training it desperately needs to be effective. If provided with future assistance, further training, and education would be possible through state, and possibility national conferences. The Caldwell County Drug Court team is presently scheduled to attend the Texas Association of Drug Court Professionals Conference February 25-27, 2015 located in Montgomery, TX. The aforementioned problem areas are consistent with request for funding in grant #2667603. Without the funding provided by this project, the Challenge Court will struggle to provide effective services to the participants who direly need the treatment. The Challenge Court team meets on a weekly basis, and stays in close communication with each other. All members of the team have several forms of contact information, and can communicate through phone, email, text, or in office meetings. Despite the short time being in operation, the Challenge Court team observes, educates, and strives to be an effective community resource. Grant assistance from the Governors Office has been greatly appreciated and put to good use. There have already been multiple success stories from the Caldwell County Drug Court despite its short existence. The Court enrolled two members in vocational training and they are currently attending classes, and two other participants successfully completed their GED courses this year. This grant period the Drug Court had its first 3 graduations, with each member being a success story in their own right. All three participants that graduated applied themselves diligently to complete their prescribed treatment cycle, completed their community service restitution, and worked their way through all phases of the program. One of the graduating participants achieved job promotions though out the course of his treatment, another was able to rebuild his family trust. The Caldwell County Drug Court has greatly improved the lives of its participants, and has changed lives in the course of its existence. Each participant involved in the Court is highly important to the presiding judge and the team. A high level of priority and attention is given to the participants, and Caldwell County is committed to providing its citizens with the best available treatment and support from the team. With the assistance of the Governor's Office Caldwell County hopes to improve services for the Drug Court and have a positive impact on many lives affected by the abuse of drugs and alcohol.

Provide the average caseload size for a full-time case manager/probation officer assigned to this project.

The desired case load size to be considered full capacity will be between 20-25 participants.

Provide your project's policy on drug testing participants.

It is the goal of the Challenge Court to help the participant maintain sobriety, not only to succeed in the program, but also to succeed in life after the program. Therefore, it is necessary to use frequent and random drug testing to promote this goal. Frequent testing consists of scheduled drug testing along with random urinalysis at the discretion of the supervision officer. This means that participants can expect to provide a urine sample at the time of their office visit. Random drugs test can come in many forms. This means that the supervision officer can call the participant into the office at will to request a urine sample, or has the means to travel to the defendant's residence or employment and request that a urine sample be provided. The participant has four hours from the time the case manager notifies him/her to provide a specimen for drug testing. If the participant fails to appear or cannot provide a specimen, this failure to submit will be considered the same way as a positive drug test result, and sanctions will be applied. All drug test will be administered by the supervision officer in desktop kit form. This desktop kit indicates the presence of marijuana, cocaine, barbiturates, amphetamine, and methamphetamine. If the desktop kit indicates a positive urine sample for any of these substances the community supervision officer will send the specimen to a professional laboratory under contract with the CSCD to scientifically confirm the positive results. The supervision officer has the discretion to ask the participant to sign a positive admission form to officially admit to using an illegal substance. If a positive admission form is signed, then the positive urine sample does not have to be sent to the laboratory, although this will also be officer discretion if officer chooses to send anyway.

Describe the process you will use to determine your project's effectiveness.

The process of determining the Challenge Court project's effectiveness is consistent with the Texas A&M Public Policy Research Institute (PPRI) reporting requirements. For example, descriptive statistical data such as (1) Number of people assessed to participate in the program (2) Number of new participants in the program (3) Number of participants successfully completing the program (4) Number of participants employed at the time of graduation (5) Recidivism rate of past Challenge Court Clients (6) Continuation of participation by Challenge Court clients that have graduated, but choose to speak and help current clientele. (7) Feedback from participant friends and family in regards to positive offender change. As the program progresses, more data, and program analysis will be available for operation evaluation.

Provide the total cost for operating your project during the previous fiscal year. (This should include all salaries, travel, counseling, treatment services, office supplies, etc.)

List the sources and amounts of non-CJD funding used to support this project during the previous fiscal year. (This may include local or state funds and any other charges to participants.)

The sources used by the Challenge Court include programs used by the Caldwell County Community Supervision and Corrections Departments. This pertains mostly to treatment programs, and encompasses many forms of state funding such as Community Corrections Facilities, Court Residential Treatment Programs, Substance Abuse Felony Punishment Facilities, and on a local level the Day Treatment Program. It is difficult to calculate the cost of use of these programs, but they have been cited to inform that all treatment programs used are in some way state funded programs. Caldwell County also assists the Challenge Court on a financial level by allowing County employees to participate in the program. Caldwell County pays for the salary of the District Attorney assigned to the program, and partially reimburses the District Judges salary. The Law enforcement officer on the Challenge Court team is employed at by the city of Lockhart, and allowed to donate his time. Although the Challenge Court is not their sole assignment, they do spend considerable amounts of time with the project on county/city time. The community supervision officer assigned to the Challenge Court is paid by the Adult Probation Department with the assistance of the Governor's Office. Since being awarded partial funding with grant #2667601 and #2667602 approximately sixty percent of the Community Supervision Officers salary is paid with grant funds. The remaining balance is funded through Caldwell County CSCD. The Community Supervision Officer now works for the Drug Court full time, and dedicates all his efforts to the Court since funding was rewarded from the Governor's Office.
